Lesson 32 – On To Rome

Reading:

- Acts 25:13-28:31
- Philemon

A. List the major events that occurred between the decision to send Paul to Rome and the end of the Book of Acts.

B. During this time, Paul had multiple opportunities to speak to people. For each of the following, describe who his audience was, what Paul said, what the response was, and what we can learn from it.

1. With Agrippa (Acts 26)

2. With the centurion and the other passengers on the ship (Acts 27:21-37)

3. With the Roman Jews (Acts 28:17-29)

C. How did Paul's imprisonment turn out to be advantageous for spreading the Gospel?

D. Why did Paul write the letter to Philemon and what themes does he address?

E. Outline the letter.

F. Some people say the Bible encourages slavery while others say it condemns it. How would you respond and what verses would you use?
